Mr. William Colby
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

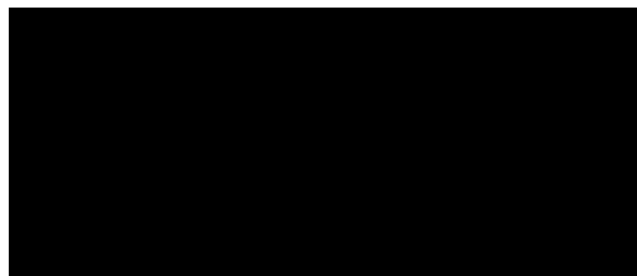

Dear Mr. Colby:

In 1964 I left the Agency following a series of charges made to the Office of Security by another Agency employee. Before and subsequent to my resignation, which I have maintained was involuntary, I was subjected to a campaign of threats, surveillance, and harassment by officials of the Agency. My friends and relatives were also subjected to this harassment.

I have repeatedly brought this matter to the attention of the Director of the Agency and have been unable to receive a satisfactory adjudication of this complaint. Therefore, I request you initiate an investigation of the matter.

Please advise me of your findings. If there is anyway I can be of assistance to you don't hesitate to contact me.

Dear Mr. Helms:

I have received the letter of March 23, 1972 from [REDACTED]

As I stated to you in my letter of March 10, 1972 I see no purpose in pursuing the matters at issue with the agency through [REDACTED] or representatives of the Offices of Personnel and Security. My position remains unchanged. STATINTL

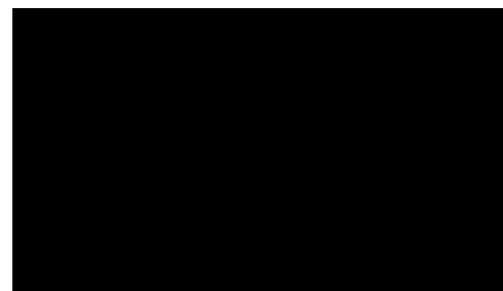

I must therefore reiterate my request to meet with you personally to discuss the matter. Should you feel that the presence of legal counsel is desirable at such a meeting, I have made arrangements with [REDACTED] of the firm of [REDACTED] to represent me. If need be you may reach [REDACTED] in Washington, D. C. STATOTHR

As to [REDACTED] charge that I have made harassing and threatening phone calls to agency people. Let me assure you I have made no such calls. I would also note that the recent visit upon me by agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation can only be viewed as another attempt on the part of the agency to harass and intimidate me. It is just such agency activities which lie at the source of the matters in dispute.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.
your reply.

I shall look forward to
